

I strongly urge you to reject any attempt to weaken Indiana's existing Telephone Privacy Law. An individuals telephone is obtained for their own personal use and they should not be subjected to unwanted incoming calls. If organizations wish to contact me regarding offers of any type, they should be required to use the United States Postals Service!